It seems that Senator Pat Goulding member of the Capital Commission does not believe in grafting. He was offered $15,000 to come across with the grapes in selecting the architect for the capital building but the foxy Irishman refused to come across and instead had the gentleman with money to burn arrested. It is our opinion that we have a capital commission that does not stand for any crooked business and this action of Mr. Gouldings will be a notice to the other grafters to move on.

Carranze's grand stand play to force the foreign governments to recognize the constitutionals has failed. It goes back to the theory "you can drive a horse to water but you can't make him drink."

March is coming in like a lion. Here's hoping it will go out like a lamb.

Judge R. L. Williams and the Press

Never in the history of Oklahoma has a candidate for any position received so much favorable comment as has Judge R. L. Williams for Governor.

Even before his formal announcement and promulgation of platform, several hundred columns of favorable comment had been clipped from the newspapers of the state.

One editor made the statement that Judge Williams has the support of eighty per cent of the newspapers and a careful reading of the papers appears to justify the statement. The following is just a few of the hundreds of press notices he has received. All the longer ones are omitted on account of space:

SHAWNEE NEWS-HERALD.

Bob Williams ought to be the next governor of Oklahoma.

Why?

Because he is a success?

Because he has made a success of his own business?

Because he has made a success as a lawyer?

Because he made a success as a statesman in the Constitutional Convention?

Because he has made a success as a supreme judge?

Because he has talent and temperament for big executive duties?

Because his sympathies abide with the toiling masses from whence he sprang?

Because he is a shining example of personal economy, industry, honesty and thrift and is therefore especially qualified to put those virtues in force in Oklahoma's public affairs?

CHANDLER TRIBUNE.

Are you satisfied with the idea of a guarantee fund behind deposits in state banks? Do you realize that not a dollar has been lost by any depositor since the enactment of the law? Do you remember that it was Judge R. L. Williams who wrote the supreme court opinion sustaining the law against the decision of federal courts in Kansas and Nebraska and that the supreme court of the United States finally upheld Judge Williams? These are facts and also reasons why Williams will be our next governor.

BENNINGTON TRIBUNE.

Should "Bob" ever be governor of this great state there is no question as to who will be the governor; nor will there be any question as to whether he will guard and protect the common people's interest. Fair and square; never dodging an issue or fearing a fight, he is the kind of man that should be at the helm of the ship of state of Oklahoma, to steer her clear of the rocks of political trouble that surround her and the hungry gang of political sharks that travel in her wake.

COALGATE REGISTER.

Bob Williams as his friends called him was always a favorite in Coal county and a very large majority of the democrats supported him in the primary when he was a candidate and in general election his majority was augmented by the vote of the republicans who recognized him as an honest, upright and able man, whom it would be safe to trust in the high and honorable position to which he was called.

ALTUS NEWS.

For some time, we have been studying the several candidates who have announced, and who are spoken of as probable candidates for the office of governor of Oklahoma. Our conclusion is that Judge R. L. Williams, now a member of our Supreme Court, in a pre-eminent degree, possesses those qualifications, both natural and acquired, which not only puts him at the head of the list, but also peculiarly fits him for the highest office within the gift of the people of Oklahoma.

He is by nature strong in body and mind; a man, who has not only fought but also fact, without which no man can be ever so strong mentally, is able to become a successful and wise director of the ship of state, and work in happy cooperation with all the departments of government.

Judge Williams stands at the head of the legal profession of the state. He is not only an able lawyer, but also one of the ablest jurists of the present time. He has also served on the Supreme Bench since statehood and his opinions stand as monuments to his judicial ability.

He is not only an able lawyer and jurist, but a wise statesman also, as is evidenced by his labors in the Constitutional Convention. Many of the wisest and best provisions of the constitution are the work of Judge Williams.

WATONGA HERALD.

The question of the next Governor of Oklahoma seems to be apparently settled. Everywhere we hear the democratic voters who have studied the situation, regardless of whether they were friendly to prospective candidates or not, say that in the mind of the general public, Judge Williams seems to be the logical candidate to reconcile warring factions, to lead the party to victory and to handle the office of governor in a broad statesmanlike manner and to the best interests of the taxpayers.

CHICKASHA EXPRESS.

Friends of Judge Williams, member of the supreme court, are grooming him for governor. "Bob" Williams is big enough, brainy enough and sufficiently experienced in statecraft to hold down the job and it would be difficult to find better gubernatorial timber. He is a plain man, simple in tastes and manners, of unquestionable integrity, considerable of a scholar, an able lawyer and his official record shows that his heart is with the people. If he chooses to get in the game other ambitious democrats will have to "go some."

NORMAN DEMOCRAT-TOPIC.

The Democrat-Topic is for Judge R. L. Williams for governor because we believe he is the best qualified and the best equipped man so far mentioned in the state for that position. He was one of the big men who helped write Oklahoma's splendid constitution and is thoroughly familiar with its every phrase.

POTEAU NEWS.

Bob Williams looks better to us than any other man in the race for governor and we know he'll make us the best governor we have ever had. Oklahoma will place Bob in the chair by a big majority.

An Oil City, Wilson, Town Lots Offered at Auction

A town lot proposition that is attracting far more than the usual attention, is that at Wilson, the oil center at the western terminus of the Oklahoma, New Mexico & Pacific Railroad (Ringling Road).

Wilson has had a wonderful growth, being now only sixty days old but having a population of 1500. The building of this new railroad westward and the discovery and rapid development of the Wilson-Healdton oil field together with inexhaustible supplies of natural gas, have caused Wilson to go forward at a surprising rate.

The town lot sale, 600 lots being on the market, will take place on March 5, 6 and 7 (three days) with Col. John B. Queen of Perry as auctioneer.

Wilson is in the western portion of Carter County, near where the counties of Carter, Jefferson and Stephens join, and in the center of a wonderfully productive agricultural and live stock country. There are untouched riches, in fact, all around and under Wilson.

The natural gas possibilities are beyond comprehension. Cheap natural gas means factories and allied industries, and the big oil field means refineries, and Wilson is bound to win. Nothing can prevent it.

The same conditions that made Tulsa, Beaumont and Wichita Falls are Wilson's and even more so for Wilson has no opposition. It is the only Wilson-Healdton oil town.

All the 600 lots are to be sold at the purchaser's own price, absolutely none to be reserved. The conditions are 30 per cent down and the remainder in 10 per cent monthly payments.

The sale pavilion will be located on the lots, and rain or shine the sale will be held.

Free every day, also, will be given away two choice residence lots, and each person attending the sale will have an opportunity to draw these. Tickets will be given each morning to all comers and the lucky number gets the lots.

This is an opportunity to get a home or a business site in the fastest growing city in the southwest, and one that is bound to become an important industrial and agricultural center. The soil around Wilson grows a bale of cotton to the acre and the farms are teeming with cattle and hogs.

This is a business opportunity, of the brand that pays. For these three days, March 5, 6 and 7, the Oklahoma & Pacific Railway (Ringling Road) will sell a round trip ticket for one fare.

Jake L. Hamon is the owner of the town site, Frank L. Ketch is sales manager and John B. Queen, auctioneer.

Remember, buy your tickets via Ardmore, to Wilson.

CHICHESTER PILLS

Really Good Manners.

What then are good manners? Simply a fine and always thoughtful consideration for the feelings and comfort of others; polite and kindly address to "inferiors" as to equals or "superiors"; graciousness, which is also grace, under all circumstances; and with women especially, no matter whether in drawing room or office, that "low, soft voice" which Shakespeare declares to be "an exquisite thing in women."
